THE PROBLEM

YOUTH SOCCER PLAYERS ARE FLYING BLIND.

No Access to Elite Mentors

Private coaching is expensive and hard to access. Most players never get direct input from anyone who's played at a high level.

Recruiting is a Black Box

The college recruiting process is confusing, opaque, and deeply unfair to players without connections or resources to figure it out.

Development Stalls Without Guidance

Without personalized feedback, accountability, and a long-term plan, talented players plateau and miss opportunities they could have reached.

> "Talent is everywhere. Opportunity isn't. We're closing that gap."

DALLAS

ONE OF THE LARGEST SOCCER MARKETS IN THE US

Why the Margin Holds at Scale

Each mentor handles multiple players efficiently. Call time and office hours are the primary cost — and they scale linearly while fixed overhead stays low. The model gets more efficient, not less.

BUILT BY PLAYERS, RUN BY OPERATORS.

OUR MOAT IS RELATIONSHIPS & REPUTATION.

Elite Mentor Credibility

Our mentors have played at D1 and professional levels. This isn't a platform of random coaches — it's guidance from players who've earned it.

Holistic & Long-Term

We cover athletic performance, recruiting, film, academics, and mentorship in one place. No competitor offers this breadth at this price.

Unmatched Local Network

Direct relationships with DFW club owners, coaches, and players create distribution channels competitors can't replicate overnight.

Built for Club-Level Scale

Our club partnership model creates B2B distribution at scale — the pivot from consumer to institutional that most competitors never make.

Price Point Nobody Else Owns

$45/month puts elite mentorship in reach of families who would never pay $150–300/hr for private coaching. We unlock a new segment entirely.

Girls Program Expansion

Dedicated female mentors and a girls-focused program opens a second market with significant demand and very little competition.

THIS IS A LONG-TERM PLAY.

We're not building a side hustle. We're building the premier mentorship and recruiting platform for youth soccer in America — starting in Dallas, scaling nationally, and creating real outcomes for real athletes along the way.
